

PYCONES

VALENCIA 2015

Valencia | 21, 22 de Noviembre de 2015

WHAT IS PYCONES?

PyConES is the most important nation-wide Python conference in Spain.

PyConES will celebrate its third edition in November 2015 in Valencia, after two successful ones in Madrid and Zaragoza and following the path of the PyCon international event (<http://pycon.org>).

Specifically, the conference will take place at Universidad Politécnica de Valencia (UPV) and will be organized by a joint effort between the local user group and Python España association.

The event

PyConES is a weekend conference where professionals and enthusiasts of the Python programming language meet to share their experience through technical talks. Because of its nature, PyConES audience comes not only from diverse technological backgrounds such as web development, business intelligence or the videogame industry but also from the academic world, being used by many professors and researchers.

The venue

PyConES 2015 will take place at Universidad Politécnica de Valencia, ranked as the best technical university in Spain by the Shanghai ranking in 2014 (ARWU). Nowadays it's integrated by more than 42 000 members, of which nearly 37 800 are students, 2 600 are professors and 1 700 are services and administrative staff. UPV englobes 15 schools of diverse nature, of which 12 are technical schools.

The city

Valencia is a traditional Mediterranean city located on the east coast of Spain of average size with a population of 800 000. Attendees visiting the city can enjoy an historic city that is a fascinating mixture of different cultures and religions that still remains alive in the numerous city's monuments and typical streets, combined with the most absolute modernity exemplified by the modern architectural area "Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias".

Valencia is a city for encounters and contrasts.

The legacy left by the cultures and civilisations which have reached these shores in the past still remains alive in the city's monuments and streets, not to mention in its people's hearts.

Business and trade coexist with leisure and culture.

Valencia is a city that never sleeps: it has a rich cultural life with festivals, concerts, shows and exhibitions all year round.

A city like this can be enjoyed with all five senses. Dialogues flow smoothly, ideas float back and forth easily, lines of communication are always open and people feel at their ease. Valencia invites you to indulge your passion for the art of encounters.

Valencia offers a rich cultural heritage of music, art, gastronomy, architecture and folklore, and reaching the city from any part of the globe is easy and convenient, thanks to a modern network of links with the most important European cities.

Some numbers

In the past two editions, the event hosted:

- More than 350 attendees
- More than 40 speakers
- More than 22.000 views of the published recorded talks.

WHY TO SPONSOR

Sponsors make this event possible.

Sponsorship allow us to offer more affordable prices to increase participation and attendee count, apart from recording the talks to reach a bigger audience.

PyConES sponsors help the whole Python community promoting a competitive yet inclusive atmosphere, making Python development more interesting for both companies and individuals.

Visibility and recruiting

Next to the benefits for the community, sponsor companies gain high visibility and positioning:

PyConES is the best place to find highly talented Python developers.

The sponsors hall is placed next to the rooms where talks will take place, therefore enjoying a privileged location close to the attendees. Having a booth in our sponsors hall will allow your company to give visibility to your products or services and keep in touch with the community.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

PyConES is an initiative of the Python España association, a non-profit created in 2013 by volunteers across Spain to promote the use of the Python programming language, serve as a meeting point for those interested in it and give support to the best of its ability.

2015 edition is possible thanks to the local Python User Group in Valencia, a group of Python enthusiasts in charge in this occasion to carry on the organizational tasks and bring the conference to great success.
